CHAIRPERSON'S SPEECH:

In her address, the Chairperson reflected that amidst evolving market dynamics and rapid technological progress, Active Infrastructures Limited delivered a commendable performance. One of the most defining moments of the year was the successful launch Initial Public Offering (IPO) on the NSE Emerge platform — a milestone that marks the transition into a new era of transparency, accountability, and growth. The trust and support of the clients, partners, employees, and shareholders was instrumental in enabling the management to create sustainable value.

The Financial year 2024–25 had been significant — not only due to external developments, but also due to key internal transformations and initiatives that laid the groundwork for future expansion. As the Company steps into Financial year 2025–26, the Company does so, with confidence, purpose, and a clear strategic direction to build upon this momentum.
